Organizations applying for grants to be used as part of a local matching share in a grant application to another funding agency must submit a copy of that application.

The Carbondale Historical Society and Museum is not applying for a grant to be used as a part of a local matching share in a grant application to another funding agency.